A VERY pleasant surprise party was given last evening at the residence of Mr. John Robinson.

We regret to learn that the Hon. W. L. Green is so indisposed as to be unable to leave his room.

At St. Andrews Cathedral to-morrow, the Rev. George Wallace will preach in the morning and the Bishop in the evening.

THE Vienna police have arrested a Mormon missionary named Hammer. It would seem that he did not strike the Austrian favorably.

This afternoon at half-past four o'clock, at the head of Kaahumanu street, Chief Engineer Nott will test a new fire hose coupling.

THREE suspicious-looking characters were locked up at the Station-house this morning. They will probably be charged with vagrancy.

CABINET Photos $3 per doz, cards $1 per doz at Sun Pearl Gallery, corner of King and Fort streets, formerly A. A. Montano's. 826 1f

His Majesty the King rises at 4 o'clock every morning, and at once proceeds to his boat-house and takes his six-oared crew out for a long pull.

An enormous water tank was being taken up Fort street yesterday. It is reported it was going to the Hotel to be used by George to take his daily bath in.

At the quarterly exhibition of the Kaunakapili Sabbath Schools to-morrow morning, the choruses will be led by the Reformatory School Band.

In the Police Court this morning, Kailipaka was charged with being a gross cheat, by attempting to cash a worthless bill of exchange. He was remanded until Monday.

OFFICERS Mehrtens and Akiona arrested last evening a Chinaman, Fook Yu, with opium in possession. He was brought up this morning and remanded until Wednesday. Mr. John Russell appears for him.

HERE is a true and faithful copy of an agreement one of our lawyers had to tackle yesterday:

I promise to Pei Akim Pak=k for his work for tree which the some of towent eight $28.00

CAPTAIN MORSE, Chief-Engineer Little and Purser Sulton, each donned a Kanaka suit this morning, and have gone into the country turkey-hunting. They will return on Monday, and we expect to see a large number of gobblers with them.

It is quite probable that after next week we shall have to do without our band for a month, it being their vacation time. Bandmaster Berger and his boys have fully earned a vacation, though we shall sadly miss their excellent music.

THE building now in course of erection on Nuuanu street to be used as a bakery by Mrs. Love will be quite an ornament to the street when completed. It will be two stories high with a pressed brick front, 92 feet 6 inches deep with a 32 feet front.

THE mortality of the globe, as given by a continental journal, which has made the computation, is as follows:—per minute, 67; per diem, 97,790; and per annum, 35,639,835; whereas the births are 37,792,000 per annum, 100,000 per diem, and 70 per minute.

THE Rev. Dr. Damon will preach at the Bethel Union Church to-morrow morning at 11 A. M., giving an account of his recent travels. The Rev. Mr. Oggel will preach in the evening at 7.30 p. m. A service of song conducted by Mrs. E. C. Damon will take place at 7.15 p. m. All are invited.

MR. R. M. Fuller, clerk with Allen & Robinson, reports that on last Wednesday evening someone entered his house on Vineyard street, broke open a trunk belonging to a friend of his, and abstracted some money. The thief then turned attention to another trunk but was disturbed, and departed.

A VERY pleasant party was given last evening at the residence of Alex. Young, King street, in honor of the birthday of his eldest daughter. Between fifty and sixty invited guests were present, the early part of the evening being spent in singing, music and games. An elegant supper was served, after which dancing was kept up until a late hour.

By the Alameda, M. McInerney has again received 150 sets of those fine harness, which he has been selling for the past year, and which have been pronounced fine goods, at very low prices. They can be found in both single and double, Light Buggy, Express and Truck harness. Every one needing such ought to see them. 828 6t.

THE mate of the ship El Dorado was asked yesterday when the vessel would be likely to sail. He replied, that they were going to haul out into the stream, drop anchor and let the vessel take root. Just then the captain came along and on being asked the same question replied, that they were waiting for that Gazette representative to take another bathe and examine her bottom.

THE Rev. J. A. Cruzan will preach at Fort Street Church to-morrow morning and evening. His subject in the morning will be "Covenant Vows," a discourse especially for Christians. In the evening the last of the present series on "The Evils of To-day" will have for its subject, "Clubs, Secret Societies and Social Organizations," a sermon especially for young men, and some older ones.

LATE last night or early this morning, some burglars entered the grocery store of J. D. Ramsey, on Hotel street, and carried off a small safe weighing about seventy-five pounds. An entrance was effected by removing a window sash. The safe was taken through Fowler's yard. Before the thieves could have got it out into the yard they had to remove a large number of old kerosene tins piled up against a door, the hinges of which they broke off. Mr. Ramsay said he heard a noise but thought it was cats. Nothing else was taken away, but the safe which, contained $75 in silver in a bag, and some loose change, also a silver watch and valuable papers. This morning a little after nine o'clock, a Portuguese brought the front of the safe to the Police Station, and informed the police he had found it at the foot of Punchbowl near Emma street, and the remainder of the safe was there. Officer Mehrtens went up there and brought it down to the Station-house. No clue has yet been obtained, though one or two parties are suspected.

Stallions at Marshfield!

"BAZAAR."
(Thoroughbred.)
By Jack Malone, he by Lexington. 1st dam, Ivy Leaf, by imported Australian; 2nd dam, Bay Flower, by Lexington; 3rd dam, Bay Leaf, by imported Yorkshire; 4th dam, imported Maria Black, by Paulo da Putah, etc., etc.

Bazaar was bred at the great Woodburn Farm, near Lexington, Ky., by the late R. A. Alexander, and was sold to W. L. Pritchard, of Sacramento, Cal., for $5,000. He stands 15 1/2 hands, weighs 1,065 lbs., and is a bright chestnut color. During his racing career he downed many a favorite, and won many a hatful of money for his owners, and proved himself one of the greatest of horses over a distance, most of his races being at two and four miles. He has already sired several colts in California that are winners, among which are Lizzie Dunbar, Young Bazaar, Sophia, and another called the Bazaar Minerva Colt, he being out of Minerva by imported Leamington, the sire of Parole and Iroquois. Lizzie Dunbar greatly distinguished herself last year in her two-year-old form by defeating one of the largest fields of two-year-olds that ever started in California, among which were the two beautiful fillies brought here last Spring by Mr. Agnew, distance 5/8 mile; time, 1:04 1/2, the fastest time on record for two-year-olds at the distance. This year she has won several important events, and has proved herself to be a crack three-year-old.

Bazaar has now been brought back to Honolulu, and will remain here the balance of this year, and breeders, horse owners and stock raisers should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain his services while they have the chance. Terms, $40. Payable at time of service.
The imported Clydesdale Stallion Donald Dunnie, Jr., will stand at the same time and place at $30 for the season. He was bred in Canada, sired by imported Donald Dunnie, and out of an imported Clydesdale mare. He is a beautiful dapple grey, 16 hands high, and weighs 1,400 lbs.; is very active, and as fine a large horse as could be found anywhere.

Also, the fine large imported Kentucky Jack Sampson. This is one of the largest Jacks that we could find in California, and is an animal of immense bone; is a very sure breeder, and should be liberally patronized, as he is one of the very best animals of his kind. Terms, $30 for the season.
The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the above animals.
